Leading health imaging company Pro Medicus Limited [ASX: PME] today announced its wholly owned U.S. subsidiary, Visage Imaging, Inc., has signed a A$28M, 7-year contract with Allina Health.

Allina Health, a not-for-profit health care system based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, has 28,000 employees and 6,000 associated and employed physicians and operates 11 hospitals and more than 90 clinics throughout Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Based on a transactional licensing model, the contract will see the company's Visage 7 Enterprise Imaging Platform ("Visage 7") and Visage 7 Workflow module implemented throughout Allina Health, providing a unified diagnostic imaging platform across the network.

Planning for the rollout will commence immediately and will be based on Visage's proven cloud native implementation process with initial go-lives targeted for the second half of the calendar year.

"This is our fifth major contract in the North American integrated delivery network (IDN) space in 18 months, underpinning the strong momentum we continue to build in this important segment of the market," said Dr Sam Hupert, Pro Medicus CEO. "IDN's are growing because of the trend towards value-based medicine coupled with industry consolidation. Our Visage 7 platform is ideally suited to meet their needs with its unparalleled speed, scalability, and proven cloud capability.”

Allina Health joins an increasing number of Visage clients to opt for a fully cloud-based solution, a trend that has taken a major foothold in the North American healthcare IT market.

Dr Hupert said “Our pipeline remains strong and spans a growing number of market segments, including academic institutions, the IDN space, independent radiology groups, and the for-profit sector. Our proven cloud-engineered technology provides us with a very significant strategic advantage with the last six of our major contracts being cloud-based — a trend we think will continue”.
